The contract for a new 1500-ton steamer, capable of making fifteen knots per hour, is to be let on the mainland by J. A. Kennedy, president of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., who departed on the Mongolia yesterday. The new boat is to replace the ing on the route now held by the W. vessel, with ample passenger accom-

Kinau on the Hilo run, the Kinau go-G. Hall to Kauai ports. The new steamer is to be an exceptionally fine modations, and eclipsing in some respects the passenger arrangements of some of the ocean-going liners calling at this port. Mr. Kennedy will let the contract as quickly as possible. He hopes to be back here in about five weeks.

The new vessel is to have a saloon, piano, library, hardwood dining tables, etc. Especial attention is to be given to the staterooms. The new boat may burn oil for fuel and she may be ready to go into commission at the end of the present year.

BROUGHT HER FREIGHT BACK.

The steamer Likelike arrived at 6:05 last evening from Maui and Molokai ports after a very rough voyage. The vessel brought back most of her cargo, being unable to land freight af Kaanapali, Puuko, Kalaupapa, Pelekunu or Halawa. Some sheep were taken on at Pearl City-17:46 a. m., *8:55 a. m., Kaunakakai and brought to Honolulu. Several scows used at Kaanapali for transporting sugar from shore to ships were beached. On Thursday night the bark Nuuanu, anchored off Kaanapali, almost slipped her stern moorings. The Likelike was one hour steaming in from Diamond Head to the channel last

KINAU'S TYPHOON WEATHER.

"It was just like a typhoon off the Hamakua coast," said Purser Beckley on the arrival of the Kinau from Hilo and way ports yesterday forenoon. The Kinau had a rough trip and no andings were possible at several ports.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Alaskan is still held in port awaiting a subsidence of the weather at Kahului.

The Kinau's cargo list comprised the following: Twenty-five crates chickens; nine bags taro; ten cases wood; eighteen cases lanterns; thirty-one empty kegs; ninety-four packages sundries.

Purser Beckley of the Kinau reports the following sugar on Hawaii awaiting shipment: Olaa, 10,800; Waiakea, 3000; Hawaii Mill, 500; Wainaku, 3300; Onomea, 11,200; Hakalau, 5400; Ookala, 4200: Paauhau 5000: Kukuihaele, 3019: Honuapo, 1205.

Lewis and others were at Mahukona, Hāwaii, on Friday night waiting to board the Kinau. Owing to the rough weather the vessel could not send boats ashore. They had succeeded in bagging considerable game on their shoot-

The steamer Mauna Loa leaving yesterday at noon for Hawaii, was ordered to cut out Lahaina, Mahukona and Kawaihae owing to the rough weather at these ports reported by the Kinau. Several passengers booked for the Mauna Loa had to remain over here on this account.

The Pacific Mail liner Mongolia left shortly after nine yesterday morning for San Francisco. The Government Band was on the wharf to play off the vessel, and the music was a special compliment to the members of the Washington delegation. A number of tourists who have been in the islands for a few weeks departed after a pleasant visit here.

The Alameda was looked for all yesterday afternoon. The Oceanic liner undoubtedly ran into the worst of the storm which swept the islands from the southwest and may not therefore reach Honolulu until this forenoon. Rather than come along the Oahuan coast at night the vessel was undoubtedly slowed down late in the afternoon so as not to get into danger.

The wonderful way in which the choice Parisienne builds up her coiffure to fill the hollows and angles made by the modish Watteau hats is finding imitation in London also. It's no secret; you put your hat on, and wherever you think it is wanted, you stick in a tuft of curled hair fastened on a long pin to secure it. ## "THE WHITE TIGHESS" A DRAWING CARD

The Buhler Company closed the week at the Orpheum with "The White Tigress of Japan," which is a melodrama with the accent on the first two syllables. The Buhler Company has shown itself capable of good work, and has been drawing crowded houses all the week. That, in the case of a play like the "White Tigress," is easily explicable. The play and the acting appeal, in one way or another, to all classes. And so the big crowds have been going away from the theater well pleased, and telling their friends about it, and so insuring the keeping up of the big business.

CANNON DECANONIZED.

has sent Speaker Cannon, of the House of Representatives, a testimonial to his unremitting opposition to the efforts of California women to get the 24, at 10 a. m., if the weather is pleasgovernment to buy and preserve the ant. If cloudy, the photograph will be Calaveras Big Trees. "Uncle Joe" has consistently held that the Big Trees are merely timber, and he has failed to see why Congress should buy more timber than it has in its own ranks. After six years' vain effort, the clubwomen took up poetry, as a final weapon, and Speaker Cannon has been, so to speak, hoist with his own petard. The lyric blast on whose fuliginous wings the wrath of California women has sped eastward, contains this quadruplicate explosion:

and thundered. Stormed at with threat and yell: 'Twas but a timber sell!' Told them to go to -

-The noble Five Hundred!" The author of this expression of the five hundred clubwomen's grievances is said to be Mrs. Lovell White, and it was read at the California Club's annual breakfast by Miss Jeanne Morrow Long.-Argonaut.
